GENERAL INFORMATION

It is recommended that applicants read and understand this section before attempting to complete the Financial Demonstration.

Sponsorship

- You may receive sponsorship from eligible family members that include your parents and siblings; your siblings-in-law and your parents in law.
- The relationship of the sponsor(s) to the applicant must be supported with relevant documents.
- The sponsor(s) must also provide an affidavit of support for the applicant. The affidavit(s) should specify Stanley College and the name of the nominated course of study.

Education / Personal Loan

- You may undertake a loan from a financial institution, a Government body, or other acceptable agency, to fund your studies. The loan must be made out to you and disbursed either to you or directly to Stanley College.
- Loan documents should contain relevant information, such as your name, the value of the loan, bank or loan officer contact details, loan term and dates etc.

Bank Accounts

- You may use existing funds in deposit accounts (e.g. fixed deposit, savings or current accounts) as evidence of financial capacity, provided
 - the account is a personal account and not a corporate account; AND
 - the history of the funds in the account can be tracked and explained for a period of no less than 3 months; AND
 - the most recent transaction on the account statement is no older than 2 weeks from the date of assessment.
- Bank documents should contain relevant information, such as the name of the account holder, bank contact details etc.
- Fixed deposit holders must be aware that any penalty resulting from premature liquidation may affect their financial assessment.

Note:

-All amounts are in Australian Dollars (AUD).

-If required, Stanley College retains the discretion to request for further evidence in all circumstances.
