OPTION 2

Will you have family accompanying you to Australia? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Name of sponsor	Relationship with applicant	Annual Income

GENERAL INFORMATION

It is recommended that applicants read and understand this section before attempting to complete the Demonstration of Financial Capacity.

It is a requirement for Student visa applicants to demonstrate the financial capacity to meet the tuition, living and travel costs associated with their studies in Australia. Applicants must also show that they can support members of their family who will be accompanying them during their stay in the country. If you have been requested by Stanley College to demonstrate financial capacity, you will need to accomplish:

- A completed Demonstration of Financial Capacity
- Documentary evidence that satisfies either Option (1) or Option (2) described below

OPTION 1 - Showing sufficient funds to meet 12-month of expenses for you and any family members who come with you to Australia

You must demonstrate that you have access to the funds to support your studies in Australia. The source of funds you can use under this option include, but are not limited to:

Sponsorship

- You may receive sponsorship from eligible family members that include your parents and siblings; your siblings-in-law and your parents in law.
- The relationship of the sponsor(s) to the applicant must be supported with relevant documents.
- The sponsor(s) mustalso provide an affidavit of support for the applicant. The affidavit(s) should specify Stanley College and the name of the nominated course of study.

Education / Personal Loan

- You may undertake a loan from a financial institution, a Government body, or other acceptable agency, to fund your studies. The loan must be made out to you and disbursed either to you or directly to Stanley College.
- Loan documents should contain relevant information, such as your name, the value of the loan, bank or loan officer contact details, loan term and dates etc.

Bank Accounts

- You may use existing funds in deposit accounts (e.g. fixed deposit, savings or current accounts) as evidence of financial capacity, provided
  - the account is a personal account and not a corporate account; AND
  - the history of the funds in the account can be tracked and explained for a period of no less than 3 months; AND
  - the most recent transaction on the account statement is no older than 2 weeks from the date of assessment.
- Bank documents should contain relevant information, such as the name of the account holder, bank contact details etc.
- Fixed deposit holders must be aware that any penalty resulting from premature liquidation may affect their financial assessment.

OPTION 2 - Meeting the minimum annual income requirement

You may also demonstrate your financial capacity to undertake studies in Australia by meeting the minimum annual income requirement of $87,856 if you are travelling alone, or $102,500 if you are being accompanied by family member(s). The income demonstrated must be the personal income of your spouse or parent(s) only, and they must NOT be accompanying you to Australia. The personal income can be a combined amount, for instance $40,000 from your spouse and $50,000 from your parents.

Also note the following requirement under this option:

- Proof of annual income must be in the form of official Government documentation and be issued within 12 months of the time of assessment.
- Your spouse and/or parent(s) must provide an affidavit of support for the applicant.

Note:
-All amounts are in Australian Dollars (AUD).
-If required, Stanley College retains the discretion to request for further evidence in all circumstances.
