Student Obligations

The 'Department of Employment and Workplace Relations' has developed a new Student Obligations Fact Sheet aimed at helping you understand VSL obligations regarding engagement with the eCAF system and Progression Forms. (This is available at the following link: www.dewr.gov.au/vet-student-loans/resources/student-obligations

Eligibility Tool

The Department of Employment and Workplace Relations has developed a new VSL Eligibility Tool. This tool will:

- Help you to gauge whether you qualify for a VSL;
- Provide additional information about what documentation you need to provide to Stanley College when you are applying for a VSL.

The VSL Eligibility Tool is available for prospective students to use on the MySkills website via VSL Eligibility Tool.

Repaying your VETSL Debt?

Your VET Student Loans debt forms part of your accumulated VETSL debt. You must start repaying your VETSL debt through the tax system once your income is above the compulsory repayment threshold, even if you are still studying. More information about VETSL debt repayments, including how the ATO calculates your compulsory repayment, is available at www.studyassist.gov.au.

The threshold is adjusted each year and for the 2025-2026 financial year it is $67,000 or above. Under the new marginal repayment system, repayment rates will be calculated only on the portion of your income above this threshold, not on your total annual income. Repayments made through the Australian taxation system are called 'compulsory repayments' and continue until you have repaid your whole debt.

VET Student Loans

What is the VET Student Loans Program?

The VET Student Loans program is an income contingent Australian Government loan program that helps eligible students enrolled in approved courses at diploma level or above, pay their tuition fees. The loan has income-contingent repayment arrangements, which means you only need to make repayments if you are earning above the minimum repayment threshold. You can make voluntary repayments at any time.

If you are an eligible student, the Department of Employment and Workplace Relations (the Department) may approve your VET Student Loan for an approved course. The Department will pay your loan directly to your approved course provider. You will be responsible for any gap amount in the tuition fees, which are not covered by the loan. You will owe a debt to the Australian Government for the loan, which will be managed by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Loan Caps

- Eligible students will be entitled for loans up to a capped amount.
- Training Providers may charge above the loan cap for a course, and if so, students will be expected to pay for the difference up front according to the Training Provider's billing period.
- The amount you borrow for your tuition fees is determined by the Australian Government and in most cases, there are three bands of VET Student Loan Caps (in 2026 the loan caps are $6,428 / $12,858 / $19,290) set for each course. A VET Student Loan is only for tuition fees and doesn't cover additional costs such as text books, materials, or accommodation.

For more information about VET Student Loans, the VET Student Loans Information Booklet is available via:
www.dewr.gov.au/vet-student-loans/resources/vet-student-loans-information-booklet

PLEASE NOTE: Students must be aware that VET Student Loans will not be approved for students who do not meet eligibility requirements and that a VET student loan gives rise to a VETSL debt that continues to be a debt due to the Commonwealth until it is repaid.

How to apply for VET Student Loans

To apply for a VET Student Loan you must complete the Request for a VET Student Loan eCAF on or before the census date; however, once you have enrolled in your course with Stanley College you must wait at least two full business days before you submit your eCAF.

After two business days has passed Stanley College will register your interest with the Australian Government that you wish to apply for a VET Student Loan. At this point you will receive a log in and password to complete your eCAF.

PLEASE NOTE: If you do not complete and submit your eCAF by the census date, you would be liable for all tuition fees payable for that fee period.
